University may cancel its reservation without cause, up to seven days prior to the date of first event or room booking under this Contract. In the event University cancels without cause less than seven days prior to the date of first event or room booking under this Contract, University will pay the difference between the amount owed by University and any revenue received by Contractor to relet rooms and spaces formerly reserved to University. Any funds paid by University as liquidated damages will be counted as a credit toward the use of the Contractor's facilities for one year from the date of the canceled event, use of rooms, or use of space.
